Comments (Young Children)

Rio would do best with older children or a home with no children. He loves the attention he receives at the meet/greets but he also likes his private time on his doggy bed.

Turn Out Routine

Since I am home during the day...and he likes running in the fluffy white stuff...he probably goes out every few hours. He does well when I am at work. he is left out for almost 11 hours a night. I do not leave water out for them and I pick it up 1-2 hours before I leave for the night.

When is the hound crated?

- Not Crated At All

How does the hound handle being crated?

Rio does well crated. He currently eats in his crate only because we have 3 other greyhounds at home otherwise he is out all day/night

What does the hound enjoy?

Rio loves playing with the soccer ball outside...toys, elk antlers. getting neck rubs and laying in the slumber ball by the heater

Does the hound have any fears?

Rio seems to be pretty fearless. Rio does not like his nails trimmed...and will do anything to avoid it. if he has daily walks that should help keeping them at a good length otherwise a short trip to the vet to have them done would be the best for him.

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

Rio is a confident grey...I bit headstrong. He does come when called but on occasion he will pretend to ignore you.

How does the hound handle new situations?

Rio handles new situations well...he is curious and likes to check things out.

especially if he thinks food is involved :)

What type of food are you currently using?
