Comments (Young Children)

He gets along well with kids at meet & greets

Does very well with my 5 yrs old granddaughter. I do supervise her with all my dogs...she is not a clingy type of child...and knows that if the dog is on his pillow or resting in their crates they do not want to be bothered

Turn Out Routine

Rio goes out as needed...since I have multiple greys right now. Including a newbie...whom I start out with them every couple hours during the day...he does fine at night not crated while I am at work...I am gone aprox 11 hours...

Potty On Lead

Yes

Garbage

Garage kept in closet

Stairs

He does know how to go up and down but does go downstairs much

Floors

Does well on all flooring

Counters

He does well...he may peek you see what might be on the counter...has not tried taking anything from the counter

When is the hound crated?

- Not Crated At All

How does the hound handle being crated?

Rio crates well. Might need to push him in on occasion..he is not a whinner...

What does the hound enjoy?

Rio loves playing with his soccer ball outside...he does get a little loud because he is having such a great time.

He likes playing with toys and chewing on elk antlers

Does the hound have any fears?

Rio does not care to have his nails clipped...

If he goes for daily walks where they can naturally wear them down would be great...otherwise bringing him to the vet to have them done maybe needed...

How does the hound handle new situations?

Rio does very good in new situations.

I think if he is feeling unsure...if he sees that it doesn't bother you...he is fine with it too.
