Yes

Please Describe Problem

Midnite has Megaesophagus.

It affects the muscles that help push food down the digestive tract...she is on a special diet to help food slide down to her tummy. She does not get treats because they would need to be soaked and mashed 1st....after eating she needs to be in an upright position to help the food finish going down

When is the hound crated?

- 8 Hour Work Day

How does the hound handle being crated?

Midnite does very well crated. No anxiety issues that I have noticed.

What does the hound enjoy?

She is such a happy gal. Loves being with people...especially cuddling up next to you on the couch.

Does the hound have any fears?

I have not notice anything that makes her fearful

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

Midnite has a very gentle soul. She a sensitive gal who does not care for people who raise their voice..even if directed at someone else..so maybe a quieter home would do great..
